

Nevada Hospital Association

Colleague Membership Application

Thank you for your interest in membership with the Nevada Hospital Association (NHA). Colleague membership is reserved for new Nevada hospitals in the planning or construction phase of development. Full membership is available at the time of opening/operational status. If hospital is a colleague member at the time of opening/operational status they must transfer to full membership at the calendar year immediately following. Membership benefits are bestowed on a facility-level; therefore, if you are a corporation-owned facility with other hospitals currently enjoying membership status, you must also apply for membership and pay dues.

1) Please complete the following required fields:

Hospital Name:
Hospital Type: (i.e. acute care, psychiatric, rehabilitation, etc.)
Physical Address:
Mailing Address:
City:
State:
ZIP:
CEO Name:
CEO Phone Number:
Name of Person Completing Application:

2) Letter from CEO

In order for your membership application to be processed, the CEO of your facility must submit a letter to the CEO of the Nevada Hospital Association officially requesting membership. This letter must include the reason(s) for requesting full membership and the contribution(s) being made in the delivery of health care services directly to individual consumers. A check in the amount of $100 made payable to Nevada Hospital Association must also be submitted along with the letter and this application. The membership application and letter will be presented to the NHA Board of Directors for review and approval. Upon approval of membership, this application fee will be subtracted from the dues amount you owe for the remainder of the calendar year. If membership is denied, the $100 fee will be refunded to you.

Colleague members with anticipated bed openings less than 50 are assessed dues of $1,000 per year. Colleague members with anticipated bed openings 50 or more are assessed dues of $3,000 per year. Dues are billed annually and are due on January 1st of each year. Memberships that are approved after the start of the calendar year will be eligible for a pro-rated dues calculation and will be adjusted accordingly.

If you have any questions regarding this application or the status of your membership request, please contact Eva LaBarge, Director of Operations, at (775) 827-0184 or send an e-mail to eva@nvha.net.
